That There Is No Mistake About -Ohio, Indiana and Michigan Have a Touch of Torment Trembling.

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 20.—There was a very perceptible earthquake in Detroit between 2 and 3 o'clock Friday afternoon. The rocking of buildings was from south to north, but it was soon over, and nobody was hurt. It was the most easily-shaken buildings in the city that were affected. The block, corner of Michigan and Lafayette avenues. Being four stories high, very narrow, and unsupported by other buildings, it rocked back and forth in a startling manner. About fifteen young men and women employed in Dr. Kergan's office, on the upper floor, dropped everything and rushed downstairs. They were thoroughly frightened and thought the world was coming to an end. All along Grandview street the shock was felt. At about a quarter to 3 o'clock it was seen rushing up the street in their shirt sleeves and bareheaded, looking anxiously around at the buildings as if they expected to see them momentarily toppling to the ground. In the Campus building, the shock was felt very distinctly. It was described as a swaying motion, which melted windows and swayed pendant gas fixtures. In W. E. Brown's office, in this building, Dr. F. Charlton, a draughtsman, was leaning over his drawing table. He felt the table move under him for two seconds, and turning around saw the chandeliers swing in the chamber of commerce building. The shock was felt even on the lowest floor. The telegraph office on a momentary break in the use of the instruments, caused by the electrical disturbances, was all that marked the event. The employees of the Whitney Organ company, on Fourteenth street, swear that the building vibrated fourteen seconds. At the Michigan Central railway depot, at Third street, the clerks asked each other, "Where was the explosion?" and wondered that while they felt the effect, they did not hear the noise. The residents on Lafayette avenue felt the shock with alarm. Looking-glasses, pictures, and chandeliers were shaken, and people ran frightened into the street. In some places glasses and dishes fell out from cupboards.

At Cincinnati, Ohio, goods were thrown from shelves in stores and people rushed from their houses. At Delaware, the Methodist Episcopal central conference was in session. The meeting adjourned suddenly. Toledo, Ohio, was also visited by the shock, and at Indianapolis, Ind., buildings vibrated and chandeliers were shaken. No serious damage has yet been reported.

Felt the Table Vibrate.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 20.—At 2:30 Friday afternoon the shock of an earthquake was felt in this city and in the surrounding country. There was a slight trembling of buildings and a rocking motion felt, sufficiently startling to cause some excitement and comment. The motion was from north to south, and a gentle undulation without any marked upheaval. The shock lasted ten seconds, there being a perceptible pause between the first and second. A gentleman who was writing at his home on Court street said he felt his table vibrate; it stopped, then moved again less violently. One lady in Covington, a little daughter of Mr. Worthington, who was sitting in bed, was frightened to feel her bed move, and screamed in terror that some one was moving the bed.

Reports from Mr. Vernon and Delaware, Ohio, say the shock was felt at three places before 3 o'clock, and that it was also felt with great severity in Lawrenceburg, Ind., about the same time. In the latter town, the shock was so violent as to be recognized by one as that of an earthquake. It caused great alarm in the school-house, which was soon vacated by pupils. A clock was thrown from its shelf, and the children in the school-house ran to their parents' homes to get out of the building, jumped out of windows of the lower story.

Toledo's Experience.

TOLEDO, Ohio, Sept. 20.—Reports from various points in this vicinity show that the shock of earthquake which occurred Friday afternoon has been quite general throughout northwestern Ohio and southern Michigan. The duration of the shock was from ten to thirty seconds, and its course apparently from southwest to northeast. It was the most violent at Defiance, Ohio, where the swaying of buildings created much commotion. People hastily abandoned their houses, and the Methodist conference, in session at one of the churches, immediately adjourned to the street. A meeting of the Ladies Missionary society in progress at the time was also quickly dismissed. Glass was broken in a number of buildings, but no serious damage done. At Cecil, O., goods were thrown from shelves, and passengers at the railway station ran out, thinking a train had been wrecked. At Napoleon, Ohio, a young man, Archibald, a student, and intermediate school, was killed, and a number of persons injured. The shock was distinctly felt by the rattling of windows and crockery, but as far as reported doing no material damage. In this city the large building occupied by the Millburn wagon company was perceptibly shaken, and the employees supposed it to have "popped" out of its foundations. —Dr. Hodge being indisposed, Rev. Dr. Wundler will preach at the Congregational church to-morrow morning at the usual hour. No service in the evening.

—Delinquent tax-payers will bear in mind that after the first of October a penalty of five per cent. will be added to their tax, in accordance with the law.

—The prohibitionists will hold a congressional convention in Whitewater on Monday next, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for congress in this congressional district.

—It is said that two or three Janesvillians captured the lion's share of the pool money put up on the state fair races. They happened to hold tickets on the winning horses.

—A grand harvest ball will be given at P. O. hall, at Milton Junction, on Tuesday evening, September 23, 1884. Tickets, 75 cents; supper extra. Mr. F. Smith, of Milton Junction, baker and confectioner, will furnish supper.

—Mrs. J. B. Day has just returned from Madison where she engaged Mrs. Earl De Moe, one of the most popular vocalists in the northwest, to take part in her entertainment to be given at Cannon hall, Monday evening September 29th.

—Business drift still continues to stick by R. W. King, the bookseller and stationer. He is receiving a large and handsome stock of books, albums, bibles, writing cases, and so on, for the holiday season, and always manages to keep abreast of the times.

—The members and the friends of Court Street church gave a very pleasant and financially profitable social at the Sunday school room last evening. The attendance was quite large, and a handsome net sum of money was realized.

—September (or cash) corn sold to-day on the board of trade in Chicago at 70 cents. On Tuesday it was quoted at 55 cents, showing an advance of fifteen cents per bushel in four days, which is a rare never before recorded in the history of the Chicago board of trade.

—Dr. Henry Palmer has offered the city the use of ground fronting on Washington street, in the rear of his Madison street residence, upon which to build a fire station for the first ward. The city to have the use of the same until such time as the city shall operate water works. The generous offer made will meet with considerable favor, and will probably be accepted by the common council.

—St. Patrick's T. A. & B. society are arranging for a pleasant dancing party, to be given in the Guards' armory, on Wednesday evening, October 1st, for which Anderson's full band will furnish the music, and Parker & Eastman the supper. This society has done, and is doing, much good, and deserves to be liberally patronized; and surely the friends of the society can spend a fair evening in no better way than by giving them a call.

—The Cleveland and Hendricks club will go to Beloit on Tuesday evening next, leave on a special train of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul road at 7 o'clock p. m., the fair for the round trip being fifty cents. The democrats are working hard to get out a larger number to carry torches on that occasion. Tickets can be obtained from Messrs. J. B. McLean, Frank Stroter, E. V. Whiton, James Ryan, William Cunningham, Oliver Church, John Schicker, Zeigeb & Blank, A. W. Bauman, James Worthington and Albert Bender.

—A few minutes after seven o'clock this morning a cranky horse, belonging to Charles Wilcox, broke loose from its anchorage near the Doty works, and with a light lumber wagon, came down Main street on a gallop. People along Main street cleared the road in the hope that the animal would slow more speed, but they were disappointed. When the cranky animal passed the Gazette office it had attained a speed equal to about four miles an hour. Here the wagon struck the apron on the cross-walk dumping the end board and a length of gas pipe. The frightened animal turned into East Milwaukee street, and seeing a lot of larger beer kegs in front of Wylor's saloon, made an oblique movement for the same, and was easily captured by Frank Pierson, as the thrill struck an awning post. Damage—a broken thill, and a broken hitching string.

—There was a social gathering of the members of the fire department at the west side engine house last evening, at which most of the members were present and enjoyed a very pleasant hour. It leaked out that Mr. William McGee, a member of Washington Engine company No. 1, whom the boys had been watching for some time, (expecting that a wedding would soon be in order) had stole a march on the whole company, that he was quietly married on the 16th of last May, by Rev. Father Roche. Miss Kate Yale, being the partner of his joys. Satisfied of this the members were called together, and Washington Engine company No. 1 presented their co-worker with several very handsome and useful presents, among which was a china tea set. Cigars were passed around, and all hands took a smoke to the health of Mr. and Mrs. William McGee.

OBITUARY.

OLE EVENSON.

At four o'clock this morning, after several weeks' painful illness, Mr. Ole Evenson quietly passed to his heavenly reward. The deceased was an old and respected resident of Janesville. He was born in Norway in 1827, and came to this city in 1847, engaging in the blacksmith trade with Major J. M. May, until 1850, when he and Mr. A. W. Parker formed a co-partnership for the manufacture of casks. In this the firm was very successful, and continued the business until 1856, when the deceased purchased Mr. Parker's interest in the firm and conducted the business alone until 1858, when he took Mr. M. Johnson into partnership, and conducted the business for several years. In 1865 Mr. Evenson commenced the manufacture of furniture, the firm being M. Hanson & Company, which was continued until 1877, when he withdrew from the concern, since which time had not been engaged in active business pursuits. He was a very careful man in his business transactions, and succeeded in laying up a considerable competence. He leaves four daughters and one son, to mourn his death, his wife having preceded him over the broad river some four years.

The funeral will take place at his late home in Milton avenue, at two o'clock to-morrow afternoon, Rev. C. M. Pullen, of Christ church, conducting the services.

BELL J. HATHRELL.

Many people were saddened this morning when it was announced that Miss Bell Hathrell had succumbed to the fell disease, typhoid fever, which she contracted at her home, 74 North Pearl street, first ward, at nine o'clock this morning, aged 21 years. The deceased had many friends in this city who deeply mourn her untimely end. The deceased was a graduate of the Janesville high school, class of '83.

The funeral will take place at her late home on Pearl street, at 3:30 o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

HENRY S. HAY.

At his home, No. 99 South Main street, this noon, Captain Henry S. Hay breathed his last, and passed to his eternal home beyond the dark valley. Captain Hay was born August 16th, 1831, in Winfield, Herkimer county, New York; enlisted in the second Illinois cavalry, serving three years, and then re-enlisted and was promoted to a captaincy and served until the war closed.

The funeral will take place at No. 99 South Main street, on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Five Blue and Three Red Ribbons.

The Galbreath Brothers, of this city, importers and breeders of Clydesdale horses, were very lucky at the state fair in Madison this week. They won the following prizes:

First prize on stallions four years old and over, with "Topeman"; first prize on stallions three years old, with "Craig Millan"; first and second prize on stallions two years old, with "The Wizard" and "Mountain Top"; second prize on mares three years old, with "Meg Dods"; first and second, on mares two years old, with "Queen of Sheba" and "Lucy Gray"; and first on mares one year old, with "Miss Hankin"; and the grand gold medal for the best stallion of any breed on exhibition.

Special Meeting.

The Blaine and Logan Inhabitables will hold a special meeting at their armory on Saturday evening, at 7:30 o'clock, to make arrangements to attend the parade in Beloit on Wednesday night. A full attendance is requested.

CHAS. ATWOOD, President.

Dr. J. D. Dexter, of Madison, Depressed the spirits of General Debutry, in their various forms; also as a preventive against Fever and Ague, and other intermittent fevers, the "FERRO-PROS" PHOSPHATE OF CALCIUM, made by CASWELL, CLAZAR & CO., New York, and sold by all druggists, is the best remedy for all fevers, recovering from Fever and other sick states, it has no equal.

The Weather.

At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer registered 40 degrees above zero. Clear with north wind.

At one o'clock p. m. the register was 72 degrees above zero. Clear with northwest wind. For the corresponding hours last year the register was 76 and 71 degrees above zero.

Physicians recommend Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder for lightening and raising bread, biscuits, cakes, etc., because, while making that table food more pleasant to the palate and more easy to the digestive organs, it takes no nutritive element from the original flour. Chemists endorse Dr. Price's Powder as the most perfect made.

Excursion to Chicago.

On Wednesday September 24th, there will be a grand excursion to Chicago, the fare for the round trip being only two dollars and seventy-five cents. This will be the only excursion to Chicago this year, and will afford an excellent opportunity for our citizens to visit the city, see the great exposition, the Battle of Gettysburg, the Sieges of Paris, the city parks and the theaters. Those intending to take advantage of these low rates must purchase their tickets by Tuesday noon, September 23rd. The train will leave the Chicago and Northwestern depot at 7 o'clock a. m. on the 24th, and the tickets will be good on any return train for two days. Tickets on sale at J. Sutherland & Son's, R. W. King's book store, Prentice & Evenson's drug store and W. W. Kimball's music rooms.
